Archbishop's Appeal Bulletin Reflection

December 15, 2024 – 3rd Sunday of Advent

When the crowds ask John the Baptist, "What should we do?" he advises them to share with those who have none and act justly. This guidance is timeless, urging us to respond to God's call through generosity and fairness. Supporting the Archbishop's Appeal is a direct way to act on this advice. Our shared contributions fund vital ministries that provide for the less fortunate and promote social justice. In uniting our resources, we answer the question posed to John, actively participating in the joyful preparation for Christ's coming.

Prayer

That we would grow in our understanding of what it means to be Many People united in the heart of Christ. That we would live out the call to unity, and open our hearts to the beauty of Christian generosity through this year's Archbishop's Appeal.

ARCHBISHOP'S APPEAL: ALTERNATE DONATION OPTIONS AMID CANADA POST STRIKE

We recognize that the ongoing Canada Post strike may impact your plans to contribute to this year's Archbishop's Appeal, especially as we near the end of the year when many wish to ensure their donations count toward 2024 charitable giving. To ensure your generous gifts are received in a timely manner, we encourage you to consider alternate donation methods, which can be found online at archregina.sk.ca/grouppage/donate-archbishops-appeal. Donations can also be dropped off at your local parish or delivered directly to the Archdiocese of Regina Offices at 200-2151 Scarth Street in Regina. For after-hours convenience, donations may be dropped off securely at:

- Resurrection Parish (3155 Windsor Park Rd)
- Christ the King Parish (3239 Garnet St)
- Holy Family Parish (1021 McCarthy Blvd)

Thank you to all who have already contributed to this year's Appeal and to those who are still prayerfully discerning their gift. Your support helps us continue the vital work of ministry and outreach in our Archdiocese.

5 Meaningful Ways to Honor Our Lady of Guadalupe

Theresa Civantos Barber - published on 12/10/21 - updated on 12/11/24

Our Lady of Guadalupe is the patroness of the Americas, so why not get to know her better by celebrating her feast day in one of these delightful ways?

As patroness of the Americas, Our Lady of Guadalupe is a beloved mother to millions of people. Her feast day, December 12 (which may be celebrated on another day this year, as the Third Sunday of Lent takes precedence), is the perfect time to honor her.

Of course, her feast day is especially significant for Mexicans, since she appeared in Mexico all those centuries ago in 1531. The nation comes together to celebrate her feast.

"Thousands of people walk from the whole country in a pilgrimage and end at the Basilica for 6 a.m. Mass that day," said Mariyoli Montalvo-Winter, from Mexico City, in an interview with Aleteia. "Famous musicians and singers perform and it's broadcast on national television."

Let's take some inspiration from this beautiful Mexican tradition as we celebrate this great feast!

- 1 - Go to Mass - Of course, the best way to honor this feast is to attend Mass and say a prayer before an image of Mary at church.
- 2 - Pray the Rosary - Offer Our Lady a spiritual bouquet of roses with this beautiful and spiritually powerful devotion.
- 3 - Tell the Amazing Story - The story of Our Lady of Guadalupe is an incredible and miraculous one. Read a book about the apparition or look up the symbolism of Mary's famous image on the tilma. There is so much depth and meaning to every part of it!
- 4 - Enjoy a Mexican Treat and Holiday Song - Today would be the perfect time to enjoy a traditional Mexican treat like churros with Mexican hot chocolate, or tamales for dinner. Don't forget to sing to Mary Las Mañanitas, a traditional song for birthdays, feast days, and other special occasions!
- 5 - Bring Our Lady Real Roses
Our Lady of Guadalupe sent St. Juan Diego to gather roses from the hillside and take them to the local bishop. In the same spirit, bring a bouquet of roses or other flowers to lay before an image of Mary at your church, school, or in your home.
