UPDATES TO HOSPITAL CHAPLAINS

As of April 8, 2025, the Saskatchewan Health Authority is now asking patients at Admission if they would like a Spiritual Care Visit during their hospital stay in the General or Pasqua Hospital, they will collect the patient's faith information and notify the chaplains that you are in the hospital. This information is not stored at the hospital upon discharge, so you will need to provide the information for additional hospitalizations. If you end up in the hospital by the emergency room, you are not going to be asked this question. If you would like to have a visit, you or a family member can use the contact information below to speak with a hospital chaplain. If you would like a visit from your parish priest, you will need to notify the chaplain or the parish to let them know that you are in the hospital.

General Hospital: Jennifer Holtslander
– 306-519-1380

Pasqua Hospital: Jerry Fitzgerald
- 306-519-1405

Wascana Rehab: Joan Rink - 306 -530-6511

Lord God, You loved this world so much, that you gave your one and only Son, that we might be called your children too.

Lord, help us to live in the gladness and grace of Easter Sunday, every day. Let us have hearts of thankfulness for your sacrifice.

Let us have eyes that look upon your grace and rejoice in our salvation. Help us to walk in that mighty grace and tell your good news to the world.

All for your glory do we pray, Lord, Amen.

What Are The "Reproaches" of Good Friday?

Catholic Diocese of Saginaw | CC

*The Reproaches is an ancient hymn that reminds us of Jesus'
sorrow on the cross
and is often sung
during the Good Friday service.*

Philip Kosloski - published on 04/14/17 - updated on 04/15/25

During the Good Friday liturgy there is a time when all those present are invited to approach the altar and reverence the crucifix with a kiss, touch or genuflection. It can be an emotional part of the liturgy as the faithful are brought to the foot of the cross and feel the sorrow of Good Friday.

To highlight the mournful atmosphere, the Church provides an optional hymn that can be sung during the adoration of the Holy Cross. It is traditionally called the "Reproaches" (Improperia in Latin) and presents Jesus' sorrow on the cross.

The verses, some of which are drawn partly from the words of Old Testament prophets, call to mind the many events in salvation history when God saved his chosen people and questioned them, asking why they had turned away from him. It calls to mind the reality that our sins are the cause of Jesus' crucifixion.

The Reproaches

Below is a sample of the many questions Jesus asks the crowd in the Reproaches.

My people, what have I done to you?

or how have I grieved you? Answer me!

Because I led you out of the land of Egypt, you have prepared a cross for your Savior.

What more should I have done for you and have not done?

Indeed, I planted you as my most beautiful chosen vine and you have turned very bitter for me, for in my thirst you gave me vinegar to drink and with a lance you pierced your Savior's side.

I exalted you with great power, and you hung me on the scaffold of the cross.

This ancient hymn is meant to provide a fitting meditation while each individual walks up the aisle of the church to kiss the wounds of Christ on the cross. It points the soul inward and forces us to reflect on our own failings. In the end, it reminds us how every sin we commit hurts our beloved Lord and furthers his pain on the cross. It is a call to conversion, begging us to turn away from our sinful habits to embrace the good that God wants to accomplish in our lives.

In the Byzantine liturgy, and sometimes in the West, the Reproaches are interspersed with the Trisagion, the great prayer
of supplication to God:

Holy is God!

Holy and strong!

Holy immortal One, have mercy on us!

Palestrina composed a famous version of the Reproaches that is often sung at the Vatican on Good Friday and reflects the somber mood of the day.
