With the lifting of Covid restrictions we can once again have servers during Mass. Any kids who have received their first communion are welcome and encouraged to sign up for altar serving. Those who have served in the past, and are fully vaccinated, can return to serving right away. For families who would like their children to serve, we are recruiting right now, and training will take place in early September.

Please email Adam Ward, apward@accesscomm.ca, to return to serving or to sign up to begin in the Fall. We are excited to get our younger parishioners involved with helping during Mass again.

Please, volunteer your time and talents for your Parish in the following areas:

POPE FRANCIS ON ASSUMPTION FEAST:
'HUMILITY IS THE WAY THAT LEADS TO HEAVEN'

By Courtney Mares

[Vatican City, Aug 15, 2021 / 07:00 am (CNA)] - On the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Pope Francis gave a reminder that God exalts those who humble themselves.

“Today, looking at Mary assumed into heaven, we can say that humility is the way that leads to heaven,” Pope Francis said in his Angelus address on Aug. 15.

“Jesus teaches this: ‘The one who humbles himself will be exalted’ (Lk 14:11). God does not exalt us because of our gifts, because of our wealth, or how well we do things, but because of humility,” he told the pilgrims gathered in St.

Peter’s Square for the Marian prayer.

The pope asked people to examine their lives and to reflect in their own hearts: “How am I doing with humility?”

“Do I want to be recognized by others, to affirm myself and to be praised, or do I think rather about serving? Do I know how to listen, like Mary, or do I want only to speak and receive attention? Do I know how to keep silence, like Mary, or am I always chattering? Do I know how to take a step back, defuse quarrels and arguments, or do I always want to excel? Let us think about these questions, each one of us,” Pope Francis said. “Mary’s secret is humility,” he said, noting that the poet Dante called the Virgin Mary “humbler and loftier than any creature.” “Let us celebrate her today with the love of children, let us celebrate her joyfully but humbly, enlivened by the hope of one day being with her in Heaven,” he said.
