OCTOBER 2023 APPEAL

This year's Appeal is a chance to step back and take on the mindset, or rather the "heart-set," and enter into what it means to be generous and love and care for others as Christ did.

It will require prayer, intentional reflection, and quite likely some sacrifice. Remember that through our generosity, we are drawing closer to Christ, saying "yes" to his Kingdom, and growing closer as a diocesan community. Please prayerfully consider how you can support our Archdiocese through this year's Archbishop's Appeal.

Our parish goal for the Archbishop's Appeal is $19,161. Together, we can reach our goal if we freely share the abundance that God has blessed us with. These funds will continue many programs that enrich the lives of those around us. Please prayerfully consider donating to this year's Archbishop's Appeal. For more information, please go to the Archdiocese of Regina website: <https://archregina.sk.ca/grouppage/archbishops-appeal/>

REFLECTION

There is something special going on in the readings today. The parable of the wedding banquet is a striking commentary by Jesus towards the Jewish people. The invited guests initially represent those Israelites who lost focus on their relationship with God, either by being bewitched by riches or ignoring the prophets. The people who are invited to the banquet in their place represent the Gentiles, meaning that Christ has come not only to the Jewish people but to the entire world. The guest caught without a wedding garment is understood to be someone who is not committed to a relationship with Christ. It is critically important to engage and dialogue with those of other religions and creeds to work towards building the kingdom of God, enabling all to have a relationship with Christ. Your contributions to the Archbishop's Appeal support the work of interreligious and ecumenical dialogue, allowing the opportunity for all to come to the wedding feast of the Lamb.

CHURCH IN DIAPLEAN, IVORY COAST PROJECT

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

On the occasion of my 20th priestly anniversary celebration last June, I invited you to help me roof and complete a church building in Diaplean in honour of my late mother Antoinette.

Few months later, I would like to, once again, express my profound gratitude to all those who have generously supported in one way or the other the roofing and completion of this church in Diaplean (Ivory Coast, West Africa).

Today, I am so happy to report that the work is in progress and the small village community in Diaplean is very happy and grateful for your support. All the members of this village community are so happy and appreciative of your support. They asked me to express to each and everyone of you their gratitude and appreciation. They promise to always remember you in their prayers.

Thank you so much for your generosity and may God richly bless you in every way.

Fr. Amédée Ainemon
